VICTORIAN TRANSITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS LOG BOOKS TO WORK DIARIES

Important information for Drivers travelling into Victoria commencing 29th September 2008

Drivers working under Standard Hours (12 hrs work), engaged in work more than 100km from their home base, can continue to use a Logbook for 90 days after implementation of the new laws on 29th September 2008.

TFMS Drivers and FMP Drivers making use of the Victorian 6 month transitional period are required to complete a WORK DIARY as from 29th September 2008.

TFMS and FMP Drivers making use of the Transitional Arrangements will have a 14 day grace period until Monday 13th October to obtain a Work Diary.

The Victorian Transitional document is attached to this update (separate PDF document).

Please ensure your drivers understand the Victorian Transitional Arrangements and if they are TFMS or FMP drivers and working in Victoria they will need to be using the new Work Diary by Monday 13th October 2008.
