Emerging Leaders Scholarship Program

Supporting development opportunities for people in the T&L Industry in Queensland

In partnership with Daimler Truck and Bus Australia Pacific, the Queensland Trucking Association Ltd are proud to offer a Scholarship Program to emerging leaders in our trucking industry.

The Queensland Trucking Association Ltd (QTA Ltd) is the peak industry association for road freight operators in Queensland, with members from all sectors of the industry across Queensland. Founded in 1907 as the Master Carriers Association of Queensland, we are recognised by the Queensland Government as the pre-eminent State Road Freight Transport Industry

The QTA has six Strategic Priorities and this program aligns with our Capable Workforce priority to advocate for industry led education, training programs and initiatives to build a sustainable workforce for the future. The recipients of this program will be a part of the next generation of industry leaders and contribute to the future prosperity of industry.

About Daimler

Daimler Truck and Bus Australia offers class-leading commercial vehicles from Mercedes-Benz, Freightliner and Fuso, as well as quality products from Alliance Truck Parts. They are supported by a professional and highly trained dealership network that spans the country. Daimler Truck and Bus is committed to the Australian transport industry and is focused on helping its next generation of leaders make a difference.

“ The Australian transport industry will need fresh ideas and different approaches from a new generation of leaders in order to meet the rapidly evolving challenges of the future. We want to nurture promising people and help them succeed in this extremely rewarding industry. ”

Daniel Whitehead
President and CEO
Daimler Truck and Bus Australia Pacific

About the Program

The QTA Daimler Emerging Leaders Scholarship Program is about identifying emerging leaders in the industry, developing their capability to contribute to the productivity, efficiency, and safety of their employer/business to lead them into the future. For our industry to continue to prosper, we need to develop our emerging leaders – we want to identify those who see themselves as being involved in the future of their employer's businesses and contribute to the long term future of the industry.

If you see yourself doing this, or have someone in your business with potential, we want you to apply. The scholarships will offer a unique opportunity to further experience the industry and establish connections with people who can advance your leadership aspirations.

The QTA/Daimler Emerging Leaders Scholarship Program will support leadership development opportunities for people in the transport and logistics industry in anywhere in Queensland, aged 21+ who have a passion for the industry, a drive to lead the future success of their employer/business and keen to be involved in future of the industry.
