

Gold Coast Small Business Disaster Resilience Breakfast

Don't let a crisis catch your business off guard!

Learn how to better protect your business from natural disasters, IT threats, workplace emergencies and reputational incidents.

Designed for small businesses across the Gold Coast, including retail, hospitality, tourism, professional services and trades, this interactive, 3-hour workshop and networking event will guide you through real-life disaster scenarios and help you to prepare, respond, recover and communicate when faced with crises. You'll hear from a keynote resilience expert and be provided with practical tools, local connections and an enhanced understanding of your business's key risks and opportunities - designed to strengthen your disaster preparedness and recovery capability.

Key service providers, such as Small Business Financial Counsellors, Business Wellness Coaches, local Chambers of Commerce, and government agencies will also be on hand to provide tailored support and advice according to your business needs.

The workshop will cover how to:

- Prepare, respond and recover from disasters and crises
- Communicate effectively during a crisis or disaster
- Access financial advice and resources as well as mental resilience strategies for business owners
- Apply for disaster grants and manage insurance claims
- Build resilience into business processes and practices.

Attendees will also receive post-event resources and downloadable tools to support long-term resilience building.

Don't miss out, register now.
